

Whether you've already made the decision to move or are considering your options, if you are going to Australia for any reason other than a short holiday getme2oz and Katherine are the people you need to speak to.

Katherine, founder and the woman behind, getme2oz has experienced first-hand the complexities of the Australian visa system after spending 8 years living and working in Melbourne, Australia before returning home to the UK in May 2008. Before her homecoming she studied Australian Immigration Law and Practice at the University of Melbourne and is an Australian Registered Migration Agent MARN 0702049, a member of the Migration Alliance (MA) and the Migration Institute of Australia (MIA), the peak professional body for Australian Registered Migration Agents, making her perfectly placed to advise and guide anyone wishing to immigrate to the beautiful country of Australia.

getme2oz is a one-stop shop for any wannabe (not wallaby) resident of Australia, offering a holistic consultancy service to seek out the best visa pathway for you and your family through to helping you set up bank accounts, look for housing and schools and even procuring the best foreign exchange rates when the big move comes around. What differentiates Katherine from other companies is her; she provides personal, professional service to every client, making their move run smoothly and helping to mitigate for any problems before they occur, meaning you don't get stuck half way across the world and you rest safe in the knowledge that the legislative side of your move is water tight. Even Katherine admits that the visa systems are complex at best and ever-changing, as a professional specialising in Australian Emigration she dedicates her time to ensuring she is at the forefront of any changes and can implement these quickly and efficiently for her clients and her business. Katherine is diligent and honest enough to tell you whether you are likely to be accepted before you part with your hard-earned savings, offering a free visa assessment at the outset, meaning getme2oz will do exactly what it says on the tin! Legally Katherine is not allowed to guarantee a visa outcome, however, she will not take on a client if she does not believe they have, at the very least, a reasonable chance of success.

“Behind every file is a person’s life story” Katherine told us “that’s why it is so important to use a qualified migration agent to look after the next chapters”.

Katherine's relationships with clients are the key to it all, as Zoe and Nicholas found out when they decided to follow their hearts and move their lives over to Perth. Following a six week tour of Australia back in 2003, the couple fell in love with the city and a lifestyle only Australia can offer. After several trips back and forth they decided to take the plunge, and not knowing where to start they enlisted the expertise of Katherine.

“We began to think seriously about what we wanted out of life. Australia seemed to tick all the boxes.” Zoe & Nicholas explained

After consulting with the couple as to their ultimate aim Katherine advised that the Permanent Residency visa would be best suited for them, based on a skilled visa application. Together Katherine, Zoe and Nicholas began the task of securing their visas and their new lives.

“Katherine was exceptional in guiding us through the application and providing help and assistance along the way.” Zoe told us

After nearly two years, taking into account work commitments, the couple were able to start afresh in the beautiful surroundings of Western Australia; they could not have done it alone but now they could not be happier.

If a new way of life is something you and your family are considering, or if you've already fallen in love with 'down under', get in touch with Katherine Van Greuning for honest, accredited advice. Visit her website www.getme2oz.com or go along/ sign up for one of her seminars/webinars to meet the lady in person, and take the first steps to making your dream lifestyle become a reality.

